

Caldwell/West Caldwell Senior Citizens Club
30 Clinton Road, West Caldwell, NJ
February 12, 2020

A brief business meeting was opened with a salute to the flag. Joseph Cecere, Council President, brought greetings from Mayor Tempesta. Reading of the minutes of the January meeting was waived. The Treasurer reported a balance of $3,420.00 in the checking account. Information pertaining to scheduling an appointment with an AARP volunteer preparing Tax returns at the West Caldwell Public Library, beginning on Fridays in February, was made available. There are 7 spots left for the upcoming bus trip in April.

This luncheon meeting took place in the Municipal Chambers which was grandly decorated in celebration of the Chinese New Year with an appropriate menu. The event was sponsored by the Caldwell/West Caldwell Recreation program, all expenses paid, and organized by Bari Schmulewitz, Assistant Director Recreation Department.

Thanks are due to Samanth McCoy and members of her library staff who assisted in the preparations, staff of the Recreation Department who acted as servers at the buffet, for help from the DPW and to Christine Krause for preparing individual dessert cakes for each table.

In attendance, 54 members; 3 new members joining on this occasion.

Next Regular Meeting: March 11th
