

PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

The West Caldwell Police Department will once again be participating in the annual Jersey Cares Coat Drive. The goal of this drive is to collect and distribute used coats during the winter season to those who are less fortunate. The drive will be held from November 6th – December 11th. Donations may be made at any time, and can be dropped off at the West Caldwell Police Department, located at 21 Clinton Road, West Caldwell.

For questions, contact Detective Paul Mazzeo at the West Caldwell Police Department 973-226-4114, or visit www.Jerseycares.org.
